

EXERCICES DE TRADUCTION: LES PRONOMS RELATIFS

1. What I want to know is whom you [fam.] talked to, what they told you and what you are afraid of.
2. An English general, whose name rhymes with "Washington" in French, won the battle of Waterloo, which took place in 1815.
3. What! You don't know what you want? Then what do you want me to do about it?
4. Tell me which of these jewels is the one you prefer.
5. What am I thinking about? I am thinking about what you [fam.] just said, and I am wondering what decision to make.
6. We do not know who she is, nor what she does, nor whom she knows, nor what she is interested in.
7. The country he comes from is a dictatorship whose president is a paranoiac; that's what he told me, at least.
8. I'm going to buy the medicine he needs.

9. The restaurant we're going to is expensive.

10. Do you know the students Nathalie is talking to?
